

Nancy Amer-Lake, LCSW-R

Nancy Amer-Lake is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker specializing in the mental health and geriatric fields of practice. She graduated from Cornell University in 1981 and went on to receive her master's degree in social work at Columbia University. She has worked as a clinician and in supervisory roles in both mental health and medical model home care settings for over 30 years. Nancy focuses on helping aging individuals and their families gain a comprehensive understanding and awareness of community resources and care planning options. She prides herself on empowering her clients to age gracefully and to recognize their strengths.

Nancy has been a long-standing member of the National Association of Social Workers and she is Co-Chair of Nassau County's Inter-Agency Council on the Aging. She is also a member of the Adult Services Committee, an advisory council to the Nassau County Department of Social Services. In addition, Nancy serves on the Board of Directors for Long Beach Reach, Inc., a multi-service drug and alcohol counseling center and mental health clinic.
